

IX Homework for English Grammar and Composition

Do as directed:

1. He is too foolish to act. (Remove too)
2. A letter was being written by her. (Change the voice)
3. Can anything be gained without effort? (Make it assertive)
4. I am not so tall as he. (Make it affirmative)
5. Getting ready, he went to the conference room. (Make it compound)
6. The school is so far that we cannot walk. (Use 'too')
7. Mohan is the tallest boy in the class. (Change the degree)
8. His father doesn't like his coming home late. (Make it affirmative)
9. Please don't open the door. (Make it affirmative)
10. Didn't you open the window in the evening? (Make it assertive)
11. She was a pretty little girl of five years old. (Make it complex)
12. You are requested to shut the door. (Add question tag)
13. He ran faster than any other man. (Change the degree)
14. They have seen the sea coast. (Make it negative)
15. Unless you see him, you will be angry. (Use 'if')

Composition:

- Draft a classified advertisement for Metals and Minerals Corp., looking for an accommodation for guesthouse in a posh area. The advertisement should not exceed 50 words.
- You have met your cousin who has got admission in a top university in USA. Write a dialogue with your cousin about the benefits and drawbacks of studying abroad.